

THE INTELLIGENCER.

LOCAL MATTERS.

BRIEF MENTION.

As we go to press, the Ladies' Store is crowded with visitors who are inspecting the rare display of elegant and beautiful goods arranged for the Grand Opening.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. John Dalrymple, an aged citizen of our County, which occurred at his residence, some miles northeast of this place, on last Thursday afternoon.

Rev. J. D. McCullough, of Spartanburg, will preach regularly hereafter in the Episcopal Church of this place, on the fourth Sabbath in each month. He also supplies the church at Pendleton once a month.

Bishop Howe, of the Episcopal Church, was on a visit to Anderson during the last week, and delivered interesting sermons in Grace Church on Sunday last, morning and afternoon. His little flock in this parish were much encouraged by the Bishop's visit.

We are indebted to the managers for an invitation to an entertainment of charades and tableaux vivants, to be given in Seneca City on Friday evening, the 24th inst., for the benefit of the Church at that place. This is a laudable enterprise and should receive a liberal patronage.

Mr. J. Reese Fant returned home on last Tuesday morning from a trip to Rochester, N. Y., whither he had been on matrimonial business. It is useless to add that his trip was an eminently successful one as he brought his bride back with him. May happiness and prosperity ever attend their lives.

For the benefit of the gentlemen of the law in our community who may have business in the Court of Bankruptcy, we will state that Judge Bryan will sit, at Chambers, at the new Court House in Greenville on the 28th and 29th instants, for the purpose of hearing motions and passing orders in bankruptcy.

A splendid opening for young men, middle-aged men and old men, who are subscribers to the Anderson Intelligencer, is now offered. The privilege is accorded them to make an examination of our subscription books, where their names are duly recorded, and which will reveal much curious, interesting and valuable information. Office hours from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

"Cheap for cash" is no longer the motto of one of our merchants. He says that it is best to sell cheaper on a credit, for then in case the debt remains unpaid his losses will not be so heavy. We intend to make him carry this theory into practice, and will utterly refuse to divulge his name, as we want to keep him on this line for our own exclusive benefit.

Messrs. Arnstein & Rose have received a large and well selected stock in the various lines of a dry goods store, and will be pleased to have the business public of our County call and examine their stock at the store formerly occupied by Messrs. Lewis & Co., on Granite Row. They will doubtless build up a fine trade by their energy and enterprise.

The equinoctial storm was slightly ahead of time this year, and gave the inhabitants of this region an unexpected visit on Friday and Saturday last, when fire and winter clothing were decidedly agreeable. The fall has now set in with earnestness, and we shall bid farewell for a season to light fabrics, open windows, flies and musquitoes. The last named is not invited to return so numerous, at least.

We are glad to see that the Town Marshal, Mr. Clark, has been making some substantial improvements upon the northern portion of Main street. Among other sensible work, he has had a quantity of sand thrown upon the side-walk in front of Mrs. Todd's residence, and thereby rendered this very muddy hill-side more agreeable for pedestrians. Now is the time for work upon the streets to be pushed with vigor, as a little now is worth more than a great deal after the rainy season sets in.

The revival meeting at the Cross Roads Church ended on Sunday night, after being in progress exactly two weeks, resulting in the addition of eighty-eight persons to the membership. Thirteen were received by letter and seventy-five by experience. The administration of the baptismal ordinance, owing to unavoidable circumstances, was postponed until next Sabbath morning at ten o'clock. A large congregation attended the service on last Sunday, and listened to an able sermon by the pastor, Rev. E. R. Carswell, who up to that time had preached twenty-two sermons during the meeting. He was assisted one or two days by Rev. E. C. Rice. The meeting has been a remarkable one, and the deep solemnity pervading every gathering of the people, day and night, with the utmost propriety and decorum on the part of all, are mentioned as marked and interesting features of the meeting.

BIBLE SOCIETY.

The twenty-seventh anniversary meeting of the Anderson County Bible Society will be held in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday next, 26th inst., at eleven o'clock a. m. The anniversary sermon will be preached at that hour by Rev. L. M. Ayer, after which the regular business of the Society will be transacted, and all persons interested in the Bible cause are invited to participate. Rev. E. A. Bolles, District Superintendent of the American Bible Society for South Carolina, is expected to be present, and will be the guest of Col. J. N. Brown during his stay in Anderson.

SANDY SPRINGS.

The annual Camp Meeting at this Camp Ground began on Thursday last and continued, we believe, until Monday evening. The meeting was an unusually interesting one to the denomination, as it had the additional feature of the presence of the District Meeting. The exercises on Sunday of course attracted greater public attention than any other portion of the session. The crowd present was not near so large as usual, in consequence of the disagreeable and threatening weather, but it was more orderly than usual. At 8 o'clock a. m. on Sabbath morning Rev. S. Lander, of the Williamson Female College, preached an excellent sermon, and at 11 o'clock the Rev. Whiteford Smith, formerly of Wofford College, delivered an eloquent and able discourse. In the afternoon there was a Sabbath School mass meeting, which was addressed by Revs. E. J. Meynardie, W. DuPre and S. Lander. At night services were conducted by Rev. E. J. Meynardie. The occasion was enjoyed by those who were present.

THE COTTON WEAVER.

The difficulty between the merchants and the Town Council has at last been settled by an agreement between the parties as follows: Messrs. E. E. Keese and J. B. McGee both cease weighing—Mr. Keese having resigned, and Mr. J. C. Keys is elected weaver until Saturday in October, at which time the Masters of the various Granges in the County are to meet two representatives from the Board of Trade to designate some man residing without the Town of Anderson, as the weaver, who shall receive for his services five cents per bale for every bale of cotton weighed, and may decide upon the question of damage to cotton or not, as such conference committee may decide.

This is to be a final settlement of the whole difficulty, so we hope our farmers will no longer hesitate to bring their cotton to this market. Further notice will be given next week as to this subject.

TEMPERANCE PICNIC.

We are requested by the Committee of Arrangements to announce that there will be a picnic at Hopewell Church on Saturday, the 9th of October next, given under the auspices of Hopewell Division No. 95 of Sons of Temperance. The regular quarterly installation of officers is to take place, and speeches from P. K. McCully and E. B. Murray, upon the subject of temperance, are expected in the forenoon, and from B. F. Crayton, upon the improvements in agriculture, and Dr. W. C. Brown, upon energy, in the afternoon. Temperance organizations are especially invited to participate in the gathering, and the general public are requested to attend with the proverbial picnic basket.

CHARLESTON ILLUSTRATED.

This is the title of a handsome book comprising 240 pages, with nearly one hundred illustrations, just published by Messrs. Walker, Evans & Cogswell, of Charleston. The merchants of that city are desirous that Charleston should be better known throughout the interior, and have published this book for free distribution, which shows commendable energy and enterprise on their part. We have received ninety copies for distribution among our merchants and business men, who will please call and get the same.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

At an election held in Williamston on Monday, 13th inst., for Intendant and Wardens to serve the ensuing year, the following gentlemen were duly elected: W. A. Stephens, Intendant; J. D. Johnson, A. J. Bradley, W. W. Holder and James H. Gaines, Wardens.

Familiar faces are always gladly hailed among us. This is certainly a fact regarding Mr. P. P. Toole's advertisement which appears in another column. We can safely say that Mr. Toole is the champion manufacturer of doors, sash and blinds, to which he adds a large list of requisites for the completion of any building. To the needy we say "send for his prices."

At the District Conference, recently held at Sandy Springs Camp Ground, the following resolution was passed, and requested to be published in all the papers within the Presiding Elder's District:

Resolved, That the Superintendents of Sunday Schools, within the bounds of this Presiding Elder's District, be and are hereby, by the Synod, advised to cause to be reported by the schools, whenever they meet, the Ten Commandments, the Apostles' Creed and the Lord's Prayer, as a part of the School exercise.

MARKETS.

Anderson, Sept. 22, 1875.

The cotton market during the past week has exhibited signs of increasing activity, and our merchants are entering briskly upon the business season. One hundred and forty-one bales were sold during the week ending at noon to-day, and the market closes with quotations from 11 1/2 to 12 cents.

New York, Sept. 21.

Cotton steady. Receipts 1419 bales; sales 1100; middling, 12 1/2 to 13.

HYMENEAL.

MARRIED, on the 15th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. J. H. Gilmore, Mr. J. REESE FANT, of Anderson, S. C., and Miss JULIA A. NARAYMORE, of Rochester, N. Y.

MARRIED, on the 16th inst., by Rev. Wilson Ashley, at his residence, Mr. Jesse Kay and Miss Joe Williams, all of Anderson County. This was the fifth hundredth couple married by this clergyman, according to an account kept by himself.

AUGUST FLOWER.

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint.

More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and there effect; such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual constiveness, impure blood, heartburn, water-brash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of the food after eating, loss of spirits, &c. Go to the Drug Store of WILHITE & WILLIAMS and get a 75 cent bottle, or a sample bottle for 10 cents. Try it.

GINNING NOTICE.

HAVING had our Gins and machinery overhauled, also many improvements made in our ginning arrangements, we are now better than ever prepared to accommodate our customers, guaranteeing them a turn-out and a sample equal, if not better, than any other gin. Besides, having in connection with Mr. J. W. Keys started a Steam Gin two miles from town, we will not be so crowded as heretofore, and consequently will not keep our customers waiting. Bring on your Cotton, have it ginned, sold, and your seed back home the same day.

Renters Wanted!

HAVING a body of good Cotton and Corn lands, more than I can cultivate myself, I will rent small farms to good farmers on favorable terms. My lands lie on the Bruce's Ford Road, four miles from Pendleton, and on Eighteen Mile Creek.

Notice of Dissolution.

THE undersigned having by mutual consent dissolved partnership on August 1st, 1875, and respectfully inform their customers that all notes and accounts are in the hands of S. J. Gaines for collection.
